ABOUT US

When searching for reliable laminated glass suppliers in Oman, Sunrise Technical Glass stands out as a trusted choice for high-quality glass solutions. We manufacture and supply premium laminated glass designed to meet diverse residential, commercial, and industrial requirements. Our dedicated logistics and installation teams ensure safe handling, transportation, and precise installation of every glass product. As one of Oman's leading glass suppliers, we recommend laminated glass for its exceptional durability, safety, and performance. It offers excellent resistance to heat, moisture, and external impacts while providing enhanced security against break-ins and unauthorized access. In addition, its advanced anti-shatter properties help prevent dangerous glass fragmentation under pressure, making it an ideal solution for modern buildings seeking improved safety, strength, and long-lasting protection.
